What you can study here:

Are you interested in becoming a teacher in kindergartens, primary schools or secondary schools? Would you like to be an expert in special education or social pedagogy? Would you like to work as a teaching assistant, carer or psychologist? The Faculty of Education will prepare you for the job.

Choose your fields of study:

- Teacher training
- Psychology
- Non-teaching pedagogy
- Physical education and sports; kinanthropology

We offer the following study programmes:

- freely-combinable bachelor's degree programmes for future teachers including the option to choose across faculties at the University of South Bohemia
- master's degree programmes for future teachers of primary and secondary schools
- non-teaching study programmes
- doctoral degree programmes

New approach to teacher training:

The Faculty of Education created a new approach to training teachers in reaction to requirements of the changing society and entitled it Teacher Pro Futuro. The aim of this approach is to prepare teachers for the future – experts ready for the 21st century.

A graduate of teacher training programmes at our faculty will be:

- a teacher that takes into account current trends of the educational process,
- a motivated, empathetic and inspirational teacher who supports students and develops their general skills,
- a teacher in possession of high-level theoretical knowledge connected with a wealth of experience arising from reflected teaching practice.

Reasons to study with us:

- wide spectrum of study combinations
- we are the only faculty of education in the South Bohemian Region
- unique connection of theory and practice
- inspirational and creative instruction
- new “TEACHER PRO FUTURO” approach to teacher training
- student participation in the faculty’s research and creative activities
- rich student life
- various activities of faculty student groups
- unique opportunity to become a hero, a chance to become a teacher
